

SUPERHERO OATH OF DRAPER UNIVERSITY

I will promote freedom at all costs.

I will do everything in my power to drive, build and pursue progress and change.

My brand, my network, and my reputation are paramount.

I will set positive examples for others to emulate.

I will instill good habits in myself. I will take care of myself.

I will fail and fail again until I succeed.

I will explore the world with gusto and enthusiasm.

I will treat people well.

I will make short term sacrifices for long term success.

I will pursue fairness, openness, health and fun with all that I encounter. Mostly fun.

I will keep my word.

I will try my best to make reparations for my digressions.

The Black Swan Clause: I am bound to this oath unless in my travels I determine that the oath has somehow missed something important and extraordinary.

The Evangelism Clause: I will promote and add to the ongoing success of Draper University, its students, its faculty, its administration, and its facilities. I will help prepare the next generation of Superheroes.

The Superhero Clause: I will accept the lifelong obligation to hone my Superhero powers, and apply those Superhero powers to the good of the universes.
